The leading views of the Editors are stat-in the following note, by one of the per-ns, who will be actively employed in the lection of the matter for publication. The Religious Magazines which have een heretofore published by members of the cflurch, are, some of them, very useful sfar as they go. My objection to them is, not they do not attempt to give us informa-on, of which the lairy, and indeed clergy, and in much meed, and which is wit reat difficulty to be obtained. In this ountry the laity have a considerable partiipetion in the affairs of the church, and history, constitution and laws. s history, constitution and laws. As hurch wardens, and trustees or vestrymen, s well as delegates to the convention, they ave important and very solemn duties to erform, and with a knowledge of these rules, it ought to be the business, of these nagazines to furnish them. The subjects sually discussed in them have already een explained and enforced by pious and earned divines, with as much ability as ould be expected from more modern wri knowledge of what we are "to e communicated to our readers as well by e communicated to our readers as well by elections, as by any original matter which we might be able to offer to them. From he writings of approved divines, not always to be met with, even in possession of he clergy, we shall most frequently collect what it is deemed necessary to give on thristian doctrine and duty. The magazine will him to be useful, and devices no other vill aim to be useful, and desires no other

I am induced to hope that, besides furishing the laity with useful information in egard to the duties which are imposed upon them, some hints, worthy of their attenion, may occasionally be given to the clergy. While they act up to their ordination ws; endeavour to frame and fashion their make themselves wholesome examples of the flock of Christ, and reverently obey their Bishops, following with a glad mind and will, their godly admonitions, they deserve, and there is in the laity of the church of Maryland generally, every disposition to honour and support them. If, however, at any time, any of them forget to pay due regard to their own solemn engagements. and instead of loving to "dwell together in unity," a design should be manifested to ntroduce disorder and misrule into the church, to oppose its legitimate authority, or to assume powers which do not belong to them, then it is not only the right, but it becomes the imperative duty of the laity, o animadvert upon such conduct with un sparing severity.

Approving entirely of the forms prescrib ed, and of the doctrines agreed to by our Church, it will be no part of the business of the Magazine to recommend or even to connive a', any new inventions, whether in enets, or discipline or worship. TERMS.

The Repository shall be published twice a month, each number to contain sixteen pages royal 8 vo—Price two dollars per annum, one half payable in advance, and the other half upon the delivery of the 12th The first number shall appear on the third

The first number shall appear on the third Saturday in January next, should a suffici-ent number of subscribers be obtained to justify the expense. Subscriptions received at the office of the Maryland Gazette and at George Shaw's

NOTICE.

Manufacturing Company of Maryland.

A general meeting of the Stockhold-A general meeting dithe stockholmers in this Company is directed to be held at the Mendiants' Coffee House in the city of Baltimore, on the second Monday in May next 8th, at 11 o'clock AM, of which all interested in said company are hereby notified.

Taken up Adrift, Sharp's Point, near the Farm of riber, about five miles from Annapolis, Six Barrels, supposed to contain Spirits of Turpentine. The owner is desired recome, prove property, pay charges, and take them away.

JNO. A. GRAMMER. April

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias from Anne Arundel county court, and to me directed, will be exposed to public sale, on Wednesday the 8th day of May next, on the premises, A Tract of Land called Portland, containing 340 acres more or less, one negro woman named Betty, one negro girl named Sarah, one negro woman named Flora. Seized and taken as the property of John Weekes, and will he sold to satis. fy a debt due Henry Darnall, for the use of Joseph Daley, for the use of Nicholas I. Watkins. Sale to commence at 2 o'clock, for cash.

BENJ GAITHER, Shff. AAC.

April 20.

NOTICE.

The subscriber having obtained letterstes tamentary on the personal estate of Lewis Griffith, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, requests all per ons having claims against said catato to bring them in, logally unthentreated. and those in any way indebted to make

MARYLAND GAZETTE AND POLITICAL INTELLIGENCER. Thre wall end of emile. Central Tavary, formerly to the Thomas for the Chy of Americal place of the place of

vol. LXXVIII.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1820.

Who has opened a farge and a dious

TAVERN
where Boarders and Travellon receive the most unremitted un and the best of every thing when seasons ford. Gentlemen attached the Legislature, and the public general, will find it to themat tage to give him a call, as he is es himself nothing will be let done to render every satisfied his customers. The best Limes fare of every kind that can be ed, shall be offered to his countries and the greatest attention and the greatest attention and the render Houses. He there licits a share of on it patrons, July 29.

A Stray Cow.

Came to the subscribers, livings

the Black Horse Tavern on the 3

more road, a large BRINDLE (6 with a white back, appears to have errops and a slit in the rightear, i had on a white oak yoke. The or is requested to come, prore prope is requested to and take her away.

WILLIAM BIRD

Irish Linen Warehous

No. 2 North Charles street, Balling

The subscriber imports and mill constantly supplied with every description of which he will sell on the most redu

He has nowon hand 150 cases 4 7.8

3-4 white linens, fine and come ditto half blesched and brown

6-1 & 10-1 diaper & damasktable in

Dowlass, Droghedas, Derries, In

Dingle Linen Checks.
The above goods have all bear

ported this spring, and as they consigned from the Manufacture will be found as cheap as any in Ar

Madeira Wine of very superior qual

2 Lustres, London made cloths and suppl

 ${f A}$  desirable farm for sal

Will be sold at public sale on X day the 22d day of May (if fair, if i the next fair day) on the premises,

farm lying in South River neck.

which the subscriber now red.
The farm bounds on the varie waters of South and Rhode rawhich furnish an abundance of r fowl and fish of every discription. I soil is susceptible of great ingrement by the application of pass and is well adapted to the column of tobacco and grain: there is co-

of tobacco and grain; there is en t

The improvements consist of a standwelling house and kitchen a tobal house and granary. The the sale, which will be accommodating, he made known on the day of sale in purchaser if desirous can have in diate possession by taking at a real the farm. Persons desirous of chasing are invited to call and view premises before the day of sale.

JOSEPH MAYO.

State of Maryland, so

On application by petition of bert Franklin, executor of the last and testament of William Kirby, of Anne Arundel County, deceased is ordered that he give the more required by law for creditors the hibit their claims against the sale ceased, & that the same be public once in each week for the space of successive weeks in the Mandada.

successive weeks, in the Maryland

zette und Political Intelligencer.

Notice is hereby given That the subscriber of Anne Arm county, hath obtained from the phans court of Anne-Arundel cor-

in Maryland, letters testamentary

the personal estate of William La

late of Anne-Arundel County, decis All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warms exhibit the same, with the vote thereof, to the subscriber, at or be the 8th days of force and that a the 6th day of Juns next, they so otherwise by law he excluded from

John Gassaway, Reg. Wills,

A. A. County.

April 18, 1820.

Anne-Arundel County, Orphansen

purchaser if desirous can i

2 pril 20.

blue cloths. April 20.

He has also in Store,

W. R. ADAIR, Jr.

IRISH LINENS,

terms.

April 20.

sortments

3 4 diaper

7-8 lawns

5.4 sheetings

Brass Wire,

April 20.

FRINTED AND PUBLISHED

JONAS GREEN, CHURCH-STREET, ANNALOLIS

-Three Dollars jer Annum on the Cincinnatti Gizette. the elitors of the G zette pro ate the laws of the U. St tes, will much obligg the board of ers, by giving the following di-one insert on. Fair Lawes for 1520. evolving time has once more red in the eventual period or errivileges. Leap year has returned-joy beams from eve--smil s dance in quick su on the ruby lips-and every ents with expectation. ler communities than our ree annual suns may hide gence far in the westers d duli uni or nity still hold society changes not with moments, and what was vesterday is so to day, & my rieds virequired renemeatri, have, there ation of the sim, and after hla our have agreed upon the as y to or jour apon all lesses en 15 and 30, under penalty ic ndemnation to a state of hles Iness. No retrenchment of expendishall be made, and in all cases sive foreign articles shall have ference over dom stic ones. No marriage shall be solemniz mil the mansion is furnished in most elegant style our market permit.

. The practice of coquetting is times admissible among fe-

No lady shall pride herself upnying discarded less than sever ers per annum.

5. After an engagement, a lady al not receive the particular at tims of more than four gentlenat he same time.

5. No lady shall boast of having de conquest, until the gentleas all have bowed three several and waited on her once from

7. No lady shall refuse a gentlein more than three times, providshe be disengaged.

8. A lady shall invariably be esited by the number of her con-

A lady may at all times break an engagement, provided a more ing tellow proffers his hand.

10. No lady when solicited by gentlemen shall refuse to join in Fig. "Dlindman's Buff-Thim-sur the mush," &c. &c. and all occasions such rational asements should be preferred to and and literary conversation.

11. No lady shall dance at any coon party more than twenty four nes, nor remain at said party more an ten hours.

P. Temale sojourners are most spectfully invited to conform to above regulations.

The board beg leave to remark, t notwithstanding the depreciatsite of our currency, and the ssure of the times generally, bewhich so many bachelors have renched themselves, they are ingly inclined to believe that the sent will be a fruitful year of inquests and marriages; aind they ist, when it is recollected that ree tedious years must roll away, fore the return of another golden pportunity, no exertions will be pared to thin the ranks of that ost unprofitable race—unmarried wen under our fair hands at our council chamber, this first day of February, 1820.

EMILINE, CLARISSA, HEODORA, Censors for City of Cincinnatti

Anashabas: J. Memoirs of a Greek. upright upon a stone, for the rabble party is hostile to liberty." (Bra-We have been so much delighted with this publication, that we sit lown to the task of making it known our readers with a decided conaction that we can only very imerfectly execute our purpose. Not even one of the grant reviews, which t ree or four tim sayear illuminate the literary hem sphere, will be able to find room for a tythe of the extracts which growd apon the critic and demand his special notice; what an be done with our weekly sheet? Let us face the difficulty and see .-Anastasius is the Anarchasis of our times. What the latter is to ancient, the former is to modern Greece. But his travels and a wentures are m re widely extended; and not only Greece, but Turkey and Egypt, ire delineated with a living peac l. self does not present us with more genuine or more characteristic picof the publication is a fiction of the novel Genus, it is immediately seen that the descriptions are real, the face authentic, and the whole, the result of actual and highly intellis to be credited, which in this case we have r ason to believe it may, these volumes are the fruits of the travels of Mr. Thomas Hope, conduce of personal remark. Such being the character of Anastasius, it would be absurd to treat it as a remance: it is, in fact, travels in Greece, Turkey and Egypt, knit together by a highly interest ing story, and distinguished for its accurate and telicities sketches of the society and minners of these countries. With regard to the execution, we can truly say that it is admirable. Where pathos is aimen at, we often meet with a simplicity and strength which go home to the heart; and in lighter parts there is a caustic and humourous vein, which -xcept in Piganit Lebrunn, (whose style he frequently resembles,) we have not seen equalled since the days of Voltaire, of whom it also very forcibly reminds us.

nested together in the collivened shape of a fabulous narrative, but in every respect the authentic pro-

The following singular facts are taken from an article in the Quarverly Review for September, 1819, on the subject of the "Cemeteries and Caracomos of Paris." [Com. Adv.

"The national convention, in the year 1793, passed a decree, upon the motion of Barrere, that the graves and monuments of the kings in St. Denis, and in all other places throughout France, should be destroyed. Nor were they contented with this: but the graves of all the celebrated persons who had been interred at St. Denis, were opened also, that the leaden coffins might foreign hayonets." be applied to the use of the Repub-

The details of the barbarous exhumation, are curious, and serve to heighten, if that be possible, an abhorrence for an act so abominable in every respect. The first vault which they opened, was that of Turenne. The body was found dry like a minimy, and of a light bistre colour, the features perfectly resembling the portrait of this distinguished general. As Turenne did not happen to be an object of popular oblogny, some enthusiasm was felt or affected at the sight of his remains, relics were sought after with great eagerness, and Camille Desmoulins cut off one of his little fingers; the body was turned over to the person who had the sexton's place, and he kept it in a chest for some months, to make a show of it, till at the intercession of M. Desfontaines, it was permitted to be removed to the Jardin des Planten .-In 1799, it was twice transferred, by order of the Directory, first to the Museum of Monuments; and secondly, to the church of Invalids which according to the Anti-Chris tian fashion of the day, was then alled the Temple of Mars!

"Henry the Tourth's grave was he next which was violated. His features also were perfect. The head had been opened, and the cavity filled with tow dipped in an aromatic extract so strong, the o dour was scarcely supportable. A soldier cut off a lock of the beat

From the London Liverary Gazette. Jupper lip. The body was placed [retract nothing—I repeat that the to divert themselves with it; and a woman reproaching the dead Henry with the crine of having been a | rushes forwards-the President reing, knocked down the corpse by giving it a blow in the face; after which it was left for some days to be the sport of these Yahoos, till it was thrown at last into the common pit, prepared for the remains upon which their senseless vengeance was exercised.

"Lous XIV. was found in a state of perfect preservation, but entire y black. The body of Louis XV. was fresh, but red, lying bathed in a liquor formed by the dissolution of the salt with which it had been covered. In the cottin of Jeanne de Bourbon, wife of Charles V. a gilt distaff was found, with the remains of a crown, bracelets, and emprobered shoes. The body of Louis VIII. was the only one that had been sewed up in leather, was strong and thick, and retained all its elasticity; the body was almost consumed, as was the winding sheet, but ragments of its gold embroidery w. ra still existing. Dogobert and his Queen Nanthildes were in one collin, with a partition between The workmen were long before they could discover the vault of Francis I. and his amily. It contained six leaden cossins deposited upon bars of iron."

Extract from the Debates of the French H use of Deputies.

Paris, March 14, 1820. Mr. La Favette. "It is now thirty three years since in the assem-ly of Notables, I first called for the abolition of Lettres de Cachet; I vote to day against the re-establishment of them."

Monister of Foreign Affairs. "I's ask for abitrary power; it is for a great purpose, and from a striking ecessity that it is asked. To call for the suspension of liberty, is a testimony of respect for that libertv. The prevailing opinions and maxims are the accomplices of the assass n Louvel."

General Foy rushes to the tribune. Do you believe, gentlemen, that it France had not been under the yoke of foreign bayonets, we Frenchmen could have endured that a handful of miserable wretches, whom we saw prostrate in the dust for 30 years-" (general rising on the right -the ministerial quarter of the chamber.)

Mr. Corday exclaimed to the orator, "You are an insolent fellow," (movement of indignation in the assembly.)

The President called the member to order-General Foy continued, Yes, gentlemen, this party has prevailed only by means of a foreign power. Such excesses as they have committed could only have taken place with the aid and protection of the assembly.)

Mr. Benjamin Constant, addressing the ministers. "Gentlemen, you are going to wrest from us our personal liberty: you are about to stifle the freedom of the Press: You are about to exclude from this Hall, by privileged elections, the defenders of the people. We might say to you, what some captives said to Tiberius: 'Those who address you, are on the point of death. Let us speak freely.

Mr. Manuel. "The Ministers present to us their present law of imprisonment, as one which he ought to adopt with blind confidence. But are we to give our confidence to Ministers belonging to a party, thirsting for vengeance; a faction winch they themselves have denounced heretofore as the enemics of liberty." (Deep murmurs to the right. Many members start up and gesticulate violently.) Mr. Castel Bajac rushed to the tribune and exclaimed furiously, "Let order prevail. Mr. Manuel has been making personal attacks upon a great part of this assembly-Let the dignity of this assembly be maintained-(Cries continue to issue from the right. The tumult is at its height. The President (speaker) rings his bell, and proclaims that Mr. Manuel, is entitled to explain.)

Mr. Manuel-"I repeat that the party in question wishes that which is contrary to liberty-(several voies from the right) we are, then, enemies to liberty-yes, yes, (from the left confusion and tumult recomwith his sabre, and put it upon his mence) Mr. Manuel proceeds-"I telligence:

voes from the left, indignant cries from the right.) Mr. Castel Bajac quests him to retire, &c. &c.

Mr. Benjamin Constant-"I ask whether Ministers will have the right of keeping those, whom they arres , in secret confinement. This question is important, because the citizen may emerge from this dreadful state entitely deprived of his reason. We have had a signal eximple of this. A general, who had rendered the greatest services to his country and might still render them, left his prison insane, after being three months secretly immured, and is still in that condition. Moreover, will Ministers be obliged to bring to trial, at the end of three months, those whom they will have arrested? The expectation of such trial would diminish the number of arrests, then they might not amount to more than five, six, or ten thousand." (Mormars in the centre.)

Mr D: Courceiles from his place. "They went as far as sixty thousand in 1815. Mr. D. marcay. "Let the Ministers see to what such maxims as their's lead. Cast a glance o youd the Pyr nics: maimen! you wish to bring us to that condition from which the Spaniards are now endeavouring to extricate themselves. Your intentions are confessed: your counsels would be the se which will probably destroy Ferdinand VII."

Mr. Payaraarin. The law of imprisonment is essential for the preservation of the dynasty. The plots of the tenth of August bro't about the subversion of the throne and the death of Lewis XVI. If this unfortunate monarch bad beer able to employ a preventive law, our annals would not be stained with his blood. We are in the same circumstances as in 1792. An open conspiracy was then carried on against Lewis XVI. as at present against Lewis XVIII. There is a conspiracy against all the thrones of Europe, and it is at Paris that in governing committee is establish-

General Sebastiani. "If I believed, gentiemen, that arbitrary go vernment would preserve the reigning dynasty from real dangers, I would not hesitate to vole for it .--But I entertain a very different opi nion. I have resided in a country, (Turkey) where arbitrary rule is in if its beauty-in all its plenitude. There newspapers do not prevent the public mind; justice is summary; the march of the government is not impeded by constitutional clogs; and nevertheless, I have seen in the course of two years, eleven ministers perish by popular convulsion, and what is still more serious, two sovereigns." (Lively sensation in

M. Coavosier-We are told by ministers of a conspi speak of a vile conspiracy against the dynasty of the Bourbons. Gentlemen, if such a conspiracy exist. it must be confined to a small numnot deny that the fall of the last government has left much unsatisfied ambition, and that some persons cherish guilty hopes of irs re-establishment; but these hopes are not those of the nation.

"The fears that are suggested are altogether chimerical. Low can we believe that this nation will adopt projects looking to the return of Buonaparte. Do you believe that Frenchmen have forgotten, that under his dominion no citizen was master of his own person, of his property, or of his children; and that our blood was every day squandered by ambition. What France has really to dread is the return of 1815," (cries from the right of ah! ah!) A Member, "We were expecting that.' Another Member, Grance dreads the 20th of March." France could dread another 20th March, it would be because it is attempted to revive the causes of the

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

By the attention of our corres pondents at Norfolk we received by the Steam Boat Virginia the papers of the 24th in t. from which we extract the following interesting in-

Norfolk, April 24th, 1820. Arrival of the US. trigate Constellation. Comm dore Morris. The United States frigate Contellation, flag ship of the squadron which left the Chesapeake in November last under the command of Commedore Morris, for South America, came in from sea on Saturday about 2 o'clock and anchored in Hampton Roa's the same evening. The Constellation took her departure for the United States at Monte Video, on the 29th of February, with the rest of the squadron, cons sting of the frigate John Adams, Capt. Wadsworth, and schr. Nonsuch, Capt. Turner-touched at artinique on the 6th instant, and sailed thence for St. Thomas, where she left the John Adams on the 12th (the Nonsuch not having arrived) and sailed for the United States. Coionel S. Halsey, American Con-al at Buenos Ayres, has come home is the Constellation.

No. 18.]

The Constellation having sprung er howsprit will remain at Norfolk until sie is fitted with a new one, when we understand, she will immediately put to sea again.

O: South American affairs we learn, from a highly intelligent source, that a corps of Artigas's army marched into the Portuguese territory, about the last of November, and deteated a corps of Portuguese troops, but on its retreat was intercepted by a large corps of the Portuguese army, and routed with considerable loss of men, horses and

The troops of the Entre Rios and Santa Fee, under the command of General Ramirez had attacked the Buches Avrean army under General Rondeau (the Director) on the 1st of February, and defeated it. Ramirez, with his army occupied a poation within 23 leagues of Buenos

The political affairs of the Province of Buenos Ayres were in a confus d state. The government was, in fact, dissolved. An effirt ad been previously made by the Congress and Dir.ctor [ad interm] to negociate with Ramirez, and had for that purpose, chosen deputies; ut he refus d to recognise the authority of the Congress, or to treat with the deputies, declaring however, that if the people would appoint a new set of rulers, free of the influence of Puerrydone, he was ready to treat with them. Twelve electors and been appointed of persons of great probity and credit, who had re-elected the Cabilde, and had chosen Don Manuel de Sarratea, Governor of the Province, and negociations were to be immediately entered into with Ramirez. Already friendly communications had passed between the present commander of the Buenos Ayrean troops, General Estanislaus Soler and General Ramirez. The Constitution will be revised, and it is expected, a Federative Governnent established, which has long been the wish of the other provinces; but some time will elapse before the political commotions in that part of South America will be setber of factious desperadoes. I do tied, or the people become qualified to appreciate the blessings of rational liberty.

It would appear that this civil war has been rather a personal one of Puerrydon: he co-operating with the Portuguese to annihilate Artigas, who is defending the country against the unjust encroachments of the Portuguese, into the territory called the Banda Oriental," which for many years they have been desirous of possessing. [Herald.

Late f. om South America.

The US. frigate Constellation, com. Morris, came into the capes on Saturday morning about two o'clock, and anchored in Lynhaven hav, whence she proceeded in the afternoon to Himpton Roads, and cam? up yesterday about 3 PM. and anchored in the bite of Crany Island. The steam boat Virginia being on a party of pleasure to the Columbus 74, which had that morning left the roads for Lynhaven bay, but came to anchor about 8 miles below O d. P int Comfort at 1 o'clock; tow. M. accompanied by Thomas Haise, esq. late consul from the US. to Buenos Ayres, and lieut. S. Henley, joined the steam hoat, and came up to town in the evening.

We are happy to state, that the com. his officers and crew, are in fine hearth. - Beacon.

benefit of the unit estate. Given un uny hand this 18th day of April, 18 Robert Frault'n, Err. Julian last Ifill and tepland immediate payment, to GASSAWAY PINDELL, Extr.
Nov. 11.